Chad's Chats

Our lives aren't always easy, but worship is always necessary. It's one thing to worship God when life is good and easy, but how do we worship God when life stinks? We must remember to keep focused on God no matter what the circumstances. He is always GOD. When we worship God when our life is great, most people ignore us, but when we worship Him in times of trouble, people want to know what's going on. So remember worship doesn't just happen when we step into our place of worship on Wednesday nights or Sunday mornings, real worship is a continuous action of our lives.. Think about it! In His love,

Chad
